

Dead of Winter:

Dead of Winter:

4 mystery writers in search of an audience

Ready to be done in? set your imagination on fire ... two rounds of bone-chilling readings from recent crime stories—read by members of CWC: Crime Writers of Canada

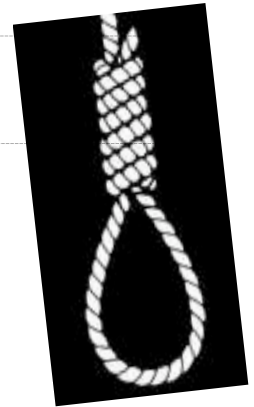

Date: Thursday, January 26, 2012

from 7:00 to 8:30 pm Don't miss it!

Location: Sidney Public Library, Sidney-by-the-Sea

Seating: limited

Cost: free

Interviewer-Moderator Sharon Walker will set the scene for each reading

By-the-casket readings Round 1...

- Nicola Furlong reading from A Hemorrhaging of Souls
- M Miles Gray reading from The Avid Gardener: Grieving and Scheming
- Denise Dietz reading from The Landlord's Black-eyed Daughter
- Lou Alin reading from She Felt No Pain

brief intermission (10 minutes)

By-the-casket readings Round 2...

- Denise Dietz reading from Footprints in the Butter
- Lou Allin reading from She Felt No Pain.
- M Miles Gray reading from The Avid Gardener: Grieving & Scheming
- Nicola Furlong reading from one of her 'inspirational mysteries'

Followed by: • Audience Q&A session

- book signing &
- other fine touches only crime writers can add to a gathering!